

Amsterdam School for Social Science Research

Monday 26th and Tuesday 27th of January

Opening Conference of the ASSR/NWO Cultural Dynamics programme with Forum and OxfamNovib:
The Culturalization of Citizenship:
The Netherlands in Comparative Perspective

---

Keynote Addresses:

Secularism, Citizenship and the Paradoxes of Belonging

Monday 26th of January, 19:00-22:30, de Aula, Singel 411, hoek Spui

by John Bowen, Washington University in St. Louis

What Does Citizenship Require? Secularism and Culture in France

by Anne-Marie Fortier, Lancaster University

Affective Citizenship and the Management of Unease

Discussants: Gerd Baumann (University of A'dam) and Mohammed Tozy (University of Casablanca and Aix-en-Provence).

on Tuesday 27 Mohammed Tozy will speak on

Citoyenneté et changements au Maroc

(English translation will be provided, 11:45, Room A0.09 in the Oudemanhuispoort)

---

Workshops on the research-plans for the programme will be held on Monday 26
January 10-17h and Tuesday 27 10-15:30h, Room A0.09, Oudemanhuispoort.

Directions: Once you are in the courtyard of the Oudemanhuispoort, take the first entrance to the left [not the main entrance] A0.09 is the first room to the left.

Keynote lectures are open to the public. Workshops are intended to discuss research proposals for the program. Interested colleagues and others are cordially invited. If you are interested in attending, please contact Nazima Kadir, n.kadir<at>uva.nl.

- for more information see: www.assr.nl -